

THE LIFE CLOCK.
TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN.
There is a little mystic clock,
No human eye hath seen;
That beareth on—and beareth on,
From morning until 'e'en.
And when the soul is wrapped in sleep,
And heareth not a sound,
It ticks and ticks the living night,
And never runneth down.
O wondrous in that work of art
Which knells the passing hour,
But art ne'er formed, nor mind conceived,
The life clock's magic power.
Nor set in gold, nor decked with gems
By wealth and pride possessed;
But rich or poor, or high or low,
Each bears it in his breast.
When life's deep stream, 'mid beds of flowers,
All still and softly glides,
Like the wavelet's step, with a gentle beat,
It warms of passing tides.
When threatening darkness gathers o'er,
And Hope's bright visions flee,
Like the sullen stroke of the muffled oar,
It beareth heavily,
Where passion nerves the warrior's arm
For deeds of hate and wrong,
Though heeded not the fearful sound,
The knell is deep and strong.
When eyes to eyes are gazing soft,
And tender words are spoken,
Then fast and wild it rattles on,
As if with love 'twere broken.
Such is the clock that measures life,
Of flesh and spirit blended;
And thus 'twil run within the breast,
Till that strange life is ended.

AGRICULTURAL.
Indian Corn for Soiling and Fodder.
—We doubt whether the value of Indian corn is more than half known yet among the generality of farmers; and if the unparalleled drought throughout the country last summer should have a tendency to teach it to them, the terrible lesson may be looked upon as a mercy rather than a scourge from a beneficent Providence.—During the past eight months thousands of animals have perished or been sacrificed for want of grass or fodder to sustain them, all of which might have been saved and kept in a good condition; had each farmer sown a few acres of corn for soiling, and fodder. We saw last summer, on a light sandy soil, a crop of corn growing, which turned out six tons of excellent dry fodder per acre. It was sown on the first day of July, in drills three feet apart. The land was ploughed deep, and highly manured. This crop was the means of saving a superior herd of cows from starvation. Henceforth however promising the grass and hay crop may be, let no farmer depend entirely upon it, but let him sow a few acres of corn for summer soiling, or to be cured for a winter's use. He will then be tolerable independent of a capricious season.
When corn is tolerably advanced in its growth it completely shades the ground, and the drought will have little effect upon it. A larger crop may usually be grown in drills than when sown broadcast; and if these drills be two and a half feet apart, we believe it will be found better than nearer, especially in a very dry season, as the cultivator can be often run between the rows stirring the ground effectually, neutralizing in a measure the effects of wet and dry weather. We recommend sowing at least one acre of corn for every five head of cattle kept on the farm. If there be an overplus of hay, it is very easily disposed of.—Am Agriculturalist.

Cure for Diarrhoea.—A certain cure for this complaint is found in rice water. Boil the rice, take the water, make it palatable with salt, and drink it copiously while warm. We never knew it to fail.—Cult.

Characteristic Anecdote.—Bombardment of Fort Brown.—Soon after the firing commenced on the 5th day of the bombardment, an old soldier was busy making coffee for his mess, he prided himself on his coffee, and on the military precision with which he served out his morning beverage. Just as he had completed making it, and was stooping down to pour it into the several tin cups of his mess, a shell whizzed over the parapet from Matamoros, unnoticed by him, and struck in the ashes and embers; and turned his 'refreshment' into the fire. The soldier took was greatly excited, he seized the burning fuse ere it ignited the powder in the shell, and drawing it out, he turned round holding it in his hand as if it were a lighted cigar, and with a most rueful countenance and voice, exclaimed, "There, them damned, yellow Mexicans have upset my coffee."

"Pray Madame," said a young, romantic-looking gentleman, addressing the daughter of one of our book sellers, yesterday, whom her father deputed to stop in the store just while he went next door—as an amiable creature, about the age of sweet sixteen—"pray, Madame," he said, "may I ask if you have 'Ten Thousand a Year!'"
"No, Sir," she sweetly but simply replied, letting her finely fringed eyelids fall, "no, Sir; but father says he'll settle the house in Magazine street on me: that tho', 'sint worth more than two thousand a year!"
The young book-buyer had like to die at Sam Slick's says.

ALL-HEALING
THE preceding figure is given to represent the various diseases of the human system. It is the great Evacuator for the impurities of the body. It will be noticed that a thick cloudy mist issues from all points of the surface, which indicates that this perspiration flows uniformly and thickly when we are in health, but ceases when we are sick.—Life cannot be sustained without it. It is thrown off from the blood and other juices of the body, and is absorbed by the means of nearly all the impurities within us. The language of scripture is, "in the blood is the life." If it ever becomes impure, it may be traced directly to the stoppage of the Insensible Perspiration. Thus we see, all that is necessary when the blood is stagnant, or infected, is to open the pores, and it relieves itself from all impurities instantly. Its own heat and vitality are sufficient, without one particle of medicine, except to open the pores upon the surface. Thus we see the folly of taking so much internal remedies. All practitioners, however, direct their efforts to restore the Insensible Perspiration. The Thompsonian, for instance, strams, the Hydropathist strums in wet blankets, the Homoeopathist deals out infinitesimal doses, the Phlogistron bleeds and doses with mercury, and the blustering Quack gorges us with pills, pills, pills.
To give some idea of the amount of the Insensible Perspiration, we will state that the learned Dr. Lewenhook ascertained that five-eighths of all we receive into the stomach, passed off by this means. In other words, if we eat and drink eight pounds per day, we excrete five pounds of it by the Insensible Perspiration.
This is none other than the used up particles of the blood, and other juices of the body. The new and fresh ones, to check this, therefore, is to retain in the system five-eighths of all the vitruous matter that nature demands should leave the body.
It is by stopping the pores, that overhelms mankind with coughs, colds, and consumption. Nine-tenths of the world's diseases induced by a stoppage of the Insensible Perspiration.
Let me ask, now, every candid mind, What course seems the most reasonable to pursue, to untie the pores, after they are closed? Would you give physic to untie the pores? Or would you apply something that would do this upon the surface, where the clogging actually is, and yet know of no physician who makes any external application to effect it. Under these circumstances, I present to physicians, and all others, McAlister's ALL-HEALING OINTMENT, or THE WORLD'S SAVOR, as it is called, to restore perspiration on the feet, on the head, around old sores, upon the chest, in short upon any part of the body, whether diseased slightly or severely. It has the power to cause all internal sores, scrofulous sores, skin diseases, poisonous wounds, to discharge their putrid matter, then heals them.
It is a remedy that sweeps the whole catalogue of cutaneous disorders, and restores the entire cuticle to its healthy functions.
I have used it for the last fourteen years for all diseases of the chest, consumption, liver, involving the most danger and responsibility, and I declare before Heaven and man, that not in one single case has it failed to benefit the patient, when the patient was within the reach of mortal means.
I have had physicians, learned in the profession; I have had ministers of the Gospel, Judges on the bench, Aldermen and Lawyers, gentlemen of the highest erudition and MULTITUDES of the POOR, use it in every variety of way, and there has been but one voice raised in praise of it, saying—"McAlister, your Ointment is GOOD."
HEADACHE.
The above has cured persons of the Headache of 12 years standing, and who had it regularly every week, so that vomiting often took place.
Deafness and Ear Ache are helped with like success.
OLD SORES.
That some Sores are an outlet to the impurities of the system, is because they cannot pass off through the natural channels of the Insensible Perspiration. If such sores are healed up, the impurities must have some other outlet, and will cause a more violent outbreak than the original one. McAlister's Savor will at ways provide for such emergencies.
RHEUMATISM.
It removes almost immediately the inflammation and swelling, when the painful course ceases.
FEVERS.
In all cases of fever, the difficulty lies in the pores being locked up, so that the heat and perspiration cannot pass off. If the least moisture could be started, the crisis is passed and the danger over. The All-Healing Ointment will at once break up the fever, and thus untie the skin and bring forth the perspiration.
SCROFULA, ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM, LIVER, AND ALL THE SKIN DISEASES, such as ASTHMA, OP- PRESSION, PALENESS, SORE LIPS, CHAPPED HANDS, TUMORS, GUMMOS, Eruptions, NEU- RALGIC DISEASES, and of the SPINE there is probably no medicine now so good—and so safe for BURNS it has not its equal in the world.
PIMPLES ON THE FACE, MASCU- LINE SKIN, GROSS SURFACE.
Its first action is to expel all humor. It will not cease until the skin is free from any humor that may be lodged under skin, and frequently breaking out to the surface. It then heals. When there is nothing but grossness, or dull repulsive surface, it begins to soften and soothe until the skin becomes as smooth and delicate as a child's.
WORMS.
If children knew how fatal and dangerous medicines were to children taken inwardly, they would be slow to resort to them. Especially "mercurial balaams," called "medicated lozenges," "coughs," "pills," &c. The truth is, no one can tell, inwardly, when worms are present. Now let me say to parents, that this Savor will always tell if a child has worms. It will DRIVE every vestige of them away.
There is probably no medicine on the face of the earth at once so sure and so safe in the expulsion of worms. No man can measure its value. So long as man treads the earth, subject to all infirmities of the flesh—so long as disease and sickness is known—just so long will this good Ointment be used and esteemed. When man ceases from off the earth, then the demand will cease, and the Ointment will be no more.
CAUTION.—No Ointment will be genuine unless the names of JAMES McALISTER, or JAMES McALISTER & CO. are upon it. Now we hereby offer a reward of $500 to be paid on conviction in any of the constituted courts of the United States of any individual counterfeiting our name and Ointment.
April 24, 1846.—[30]
The above Ointment is for sale in Wilmington, at the CHRONICLE OFFICE.
Price 50 cents for the large, and 25 cents for the small bottles.

PATENT GLASS PAD
Double and Single Lever Truss, for HERNIA.
Dr. J. T. S. has on hand, and offers for sale, at manufacturer's prices, a large supply of the above Truss, consisting of eighteen different shapes and all sizes. They are pronounced by all who have used them to be superior to any Truss ever before invented. He feels confident that a trial of the above Truss will satisfy any person of its superiority. The above medicines are for sale in Princess street, near Rankin & Martin's Auction and Commission Store, at wholesale and retail.

To the Friends of Humanity.
THE PHILANTHROPIST
IS the title of a monthly sheet, proposed to be issued in Wilmington, N. C., at one dollar a year, payable on receipt of the first number.
Intemperance, the great enemy to prosperity and happiness, is exerting a wide influence throughout the country. It is a growing evil, and is daily destroying the lives, to say nothing of the comforts, of thousands of the human family, notwithstanding the efforts that have been made, and are still being made, towards its suppression. One principal reason why this great evil is still permitted to exist to an alarming extent, is, that the exertions of the friends of the Temperance cause have been confined principally to cities and towns, while villages and the country at large, are almost entirely neglected. A cheap temperance newspaper, can not, it is presumed, fail of success, in the way of patronage; and if extensively circulated, would doubtless prove a barrier, in no small degree, to the progress of inebriation—thus carrying out successfully, the benevolent intentions of the friends of Temperance, which could not be accomplished in any other way. This publication, besides proving and the disgraceful habits of drunkenness, will, at the same time, afford a variety of other matter, of a distinct nature.
A Foe to the Grogger,
In North Carolina no paper of this description has ever made its appearance, (although proposals have recently been issued for the purpose,) owing, no doubt, to the fact that the influence necessary to promote the success of a work of this kind, has been omitted. An anxious appeal is made to the friends of the cause generally, to use their utmost endeavors to give encouragement to this publication. The first number of the Philanthropist will make its appearance as soon as 600 subscribers can be obtained, which can be done if every influential person would feel a sufficient interest in the cause of Temperance, to exert himself.—The Philanthropist will be printed on a medium sheet, in newspaper form, so as to afford a privilege to advertisers.
Persons disposed to patronize this work, are requested to forward their names to Wilmington, by mail or otherwise, by the first of August next, addressed to the
EDITOR OF THE PHILANTHROPIST.
Editors of papers throughout the State will please give the above a few insertions, with some remarks of their own by way of recommendation.
